PRESIDENT DEMANDED LUZON.

Our Subsequent Demand For Contro of the Whole Islands Was Made by Goff (Rep.), 1. Total vote cast, 95; the Commission, After a Protest necessary to elect, 48. the Commission, After a Protest From Senator Grav.

Washington, Jan. 31.-The president yesterday sent to the senate the correspondence on file in the state department bearing upon the peace treaty. and it was read in the executive ses sion. The correspondence was sent in response to the resolution introduced by Senator Hoar, and includes most of the letters and cablegrams from the commissioners to the president and from the president to the commissionway of instructions in return. The documents are numerous as there were telegrams, letters and re-ports for almost every day the com-missioners were in Paris. One of the first cablegrams from the president in-structed them to demand the cession of Luzon he said there was but one al-ternative. The United States must either take the island and assume sovereignty or return it to Spain, and ed commissioner of internal revenue by of the two courses he preferred the President McKinley.

Spain was from the first unwilling to cede any of the Philippines, and she made especial objection to letting go of Luzon alone. The commissioners, with the exception of Senator Gray, urged that to take Luzon and leave the other islands of the archipelago in the hands of the Spaniards would be to invite innumerable complications with other nations, and especially with Spain. Much stress was laid upon the probability of future trouble with Spain. With Luzon under American administration there would soon be such a vast improvement, they wrote, that the other islanders would soon grow more and more rebellious, and with Spain's oppressive methods of government we would soon again find that we had anmore, there would be constant fillbustering, and we should find ourselves spending millions to preserve a state of neutrality, just as we did in the case of Cuba prior to our declaration of war account of that Island. General Merritt's testimony on this point was ing the entire group.

The president does not appear to have all the Philippines, but rather, after missioners.

The entire controversy was practi-cally over the Philippines and the question of assuming responsibility for the payment of the Spanish bonds for which the Cuban revenues were pledg-The Spaniards from the first in sisted upon an indemnity for the Philippines, and the correspondence shows that after the proposition to pay $20,-000,000 was made the negotiations proceeded much more smoothly and were soon brought to a close.

The American commissioners appear to have been of one mind as to the wis-dom of taking over all the Philippines with the exception of Senator Gray who, notwithstanding he signed the treaty, held out to the last against the policy of acquiring these islands. In one notable dispatch he pleaded zealin-American and inconsistent with probity and good statesmanship. After a brief debate the senate refused to print the correspondence.

Mr. Porter to Disburse the $3,000,-000-Gomez Disgruntled.

Havana, Jan. 31.-President McKin-Robert P. Porter to arrange for the disbursement of $3,000,000 among the Cuban soldiers. Mr. Porter will probsada to Remedios to meet General Maximo Gomez to persuade the Cuban commander-in-chief to disband his forces and to lend his influence to the United States military administration. Dr. Castillo, who returned from Remedios yesterday after a two days' visit with General Gomez, says the latter is much hurt by what he regards as American neglect of his authority and shall be one dispensary for 10,000 in-rights, and is determined not to advise habitants. N. B. SCOTT FOR SENATOR.

The Republican Candidate Declared Elected in West Virginia. Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 26.-After a ontest of over two weeks Internal Revenue Commissioner Nathan Bay Scott was yesterday afternoon elected United States senator from Virginia for the term ending March, 1905. He will succeed Senator Charles Faulkner. A decisive result was reached on the first joint ballot. The vote stood: Scott (Rep.), 48; McGraw (Dem.), 46;

It is given out that Scott's election will be contested before the United States senate. During the balloting the Democrats filed a protest against the votes of Getzendanner and Brizen. whom they claim to be ineligible because they accepted a commission in he volunteer army while holding their offices as senators. THE SOUTH WAS RIGHT.

After This Declaration Mr. Butler Withdraws Pension Amendment. was about to conclude consideration of the pension appropriation bill late yesterday afternoon Mr. Butler, of North Carolina, offered his amendment, and General Miles had ruined his life. He nounced some time ago, providing for the pensioning of ex-Confederate soldiers. Upon this he took the floor and delivered a speech which, as he proceeded, developed into a most unex-pected utterance. Mr. Butler defended the position taken by the south dur-ing the great civil conflict of a third of a century ago. He declared that the south was right, and that history would other Cuba at another door. Nathan Bay Scott was born in Ohlo in 1842. He enlisted in the Union army at the closing session of the court was directed largely to establishing the fact that the general had lost his mental balance as a result of the charges made against him by General Miles. His daughter and her husband told of ter, Mrs. Hopkins, in which she de-scribed her father's appearance on the day he first read General Miles' state-ment. Standing in the door of his house with the newspaper containing the evi-dence in his hand he exclaimed wildwas from that time in an alarming condition, and when witness was comher father. The witness spoke with much feeling in regard to her father's changed condition. Dr. W. E. Hop-kins, of California and New York, corroborated his wife's testimony, and added that General Eagan could not eat nor sleep normally.

Other old acquaintances testified that General Eagan neve used profane or ment vulgar language, and that he had aldiers.

Secretary Alger was among the witnesses called. He aid he recalled given his testimony. General Eagan came into his office in an excited state of mind and said It was his wish to prefer charges against General Miles for what he had said. "I told him," testified Secretary Alger, "that under the president's order granting immuni-ty to officers who testified before the ommission he could not do so.

GENERAL EAGAN'S PUNISRMENT Only the President Can Save Him

Washington, Jan. 30 .- General Eagan, commissary general of subsistence United States army, has been found guilty of the charge of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and of conduct to the prejudice of good order and discipline, and has been sen-tenced to dismissal from the United States army, but with a recommenda-tion from the court for the exercise of executive clemency. Under the regulations the court havcused was guilty had no choice in selecting a penalty, the regulations prescribing abs -dismissal. CARLISM IS DEAD ONCE MORE.

Spanish Monarchy Firmly Established and Carlos Has No Show. London, Jan. 31.-The Madrid correspondent of The Times, in a letter reviewing the situation in Sprin, says:
"The prospects of Carlism is waning. The Carlists themselves complain that Don Carlos allowed a great opportunity to slip when, six weeks ago, the country was filled with dismay and indignation at the price of defeat. He might have had a hope of success then, but now the enthusiasm of even his arden admirers is chilly, and the general opinion is that he has little chance, the subject is being dropped, the people realizing that salvation is not to be had that way. This result is not due to the suppression of Carlist propagands. On the contrary, the govern-ment displays the greatest tolerance. "The monarchy is fir. ly established, and the Carlists themselves are too strongly interested in the industries and welfare of the country to risk its ruin through revolution. The clergy, owing to the pope's influence, are much less irreconciliable than formerly.

"The only danger lies in the Basque provinces, but even there the people would not fight unless they were well paid. No doubt the pretender might succeed if he could win over the army, but there is no sign that the army is so inclined."

J. R. Bridge, of Boston, Had "Ocular Demonstration of the Tricks." Boston, Jan. 31 .- J. R. Bridge, of this city, whose name appeared in connection with that of Charles S. Hill in an alleged expose of the Keely motor seeret, and who was accused in a state-ment issued by T. B. Vinraid, who was supposed to be the sole possessor of the late inventor's secret, of breach of faith, yesterday made a reply to Mr. Kinrald, in which he stated that the knowledge of the fraud was imparted to him without solicitation or request, and that he made no promise of secrecy and was under no obligation to keep silent. Mr. Bridge says: "In addition to the evidences of fraud which I saw in Mr. Keely's laboratory in Philadelphia I also have seen since Mr. Keely's death the most important of the experiments performed by Mr. Kinraid himself. Mr. Kinraid told both Mr. Hill and myself that the plain evidences of fraud covered every experiment done by Mr. Keely, and as we had had ocular demonstrations of the tricks we could not doubt the state-

Dureau of ordinance to give me this deadlock continues, Republicans being unable to read it." Then follows the report from the ordinance bureau, signed by Charles O'Neill, chief of the bureau. It is as follows:
"Referring to the reported speech of General Woodford at the Army and Navy club at New York on Saturday evening last, in which he is quoted as saying "that on Feb. 18, 1898, three days after the Maine was blc up in Havana harbor, he received information by telegraph that this government did not possess powder enough to pro vide the warships and forts with two rounds for each gun," so far as relates to the navy, is an error as every ves-sel was practically filled up with her allowance of ammunition. "The regulations of the department prescribe that 'the reserve ...amuni-tion for guns of the main battery, except on monitors and cc ' defense vessels, shall not be allowed to fall be-low 40 rounds per gun for six inch caliber and above, nor below 50 rounds per gun for the rapid fire guns, and no ressel of the navy was reduced so low

"In addition to the supply of am munition afloat the navy had a fair amount in reserve, especially of pro-There were less rounds of powder per gun than of shell, and for this reason, by direction of the secretary, an emergency order was placed for powder on Jan. 15, 1898, just one month before the destruction of the Maine, and by the 15th of February the date of that catastrophe, the navy department had about 750,000 pounds of powder in reserve, and it was being turned out in large quantities daily.
"So far as relates to the supply of ammunition on Dewey's ship, the fact is they never were reduced below the limit prescribed by the department, and they could have safely gone into ac tion without receiving further supply The vessels engaged expended about one-third of their allowance.

"As further showing the state of the ammunition supply of this fleet, it is remarked that on Nov. 2, 1897, orders were issued by the bureau of ordnance to the Mare Island navy yard to prepare for the Olympia, Boston and Petrel a quantity of ammunition which would completely fill their allowance and give them one-quarter target prac-tice in addition. This ammunition was forwarded as rapidly as possible, thus filling up all the vessels of the Asiatic fleet, but without this they were in condition to go into battle. "As soon as the department learned that a battle had been fought steps were taken to make further shipments to the East Indies. These shipment were made in anticipation of possible further need of the squadron, and were nt after the battle of Manila bay."
